Recite the following three surahs (chapters of Quran) three times each in Arabic. The Prophet said, "Whoever recites these three times in the morning and in the evening, they will suffice him (as a protection) against everything."<sup>[2]</sup>

(e) Recite three times in Arabic in the morning and evening:

"Bismillaahil-lathee laa yadhurru ma'as-mihi shay'un fil-ardhi wa laa fis-samaa'i wa Huwas-Samee 'ul- 'Aleem"

"I begin with the Name of Allah, Who with His Name nothing can cause harm in the earth nor in the heavens, and He is the All-Hearing, the All-Knowing."

"Whoever recites it three times in the morning will not be afflicted by any calamity before evening, and whoever recites it three times in the evening will not be overtaken by any calamity before morning."<sup>[3]</sup>

2. Invocations Before Sleeping

- a) Cup your palms together, and recite the same three chapters of the Quran mentioned earlier (Chapter 112, 113 and 114). Then blow in your hands and pass them over as much of your body as you can reach, beginning with the head and the face, then the entire front of your body. Do this three times.<sup>[4]</sup>

b) Recite the verse of Al-Kursi (Quran, 2:255), which is also mentioned above.

Prophet Muhammad said, “Whoever reads this when he lies down to sleep will have a guardian from Allah remain with him and Satan will not be able to come near him until he rises in the morning.”<sup>[5]</sup>

3. Invocation for leaving the home

“Bismillaahi, tawakkaltu ‘alallaahi, wa laa hawla wa laa quwwata illaa billaah”

“I begin with the Name of Allah, I have placed my trust in Allah, there is no might and no power except by Allah.”<sup>[6]</sup>

4. Invocation for entering the home

“Bismillaahi walajnaa, wa bismillaahi kharajnaa, wa ‘alaa Rabbinaa tawakkalnaa”

“In the Name of Allah we enter, in the Name of Allah we leave, and upon our Lord we depend (then say As-Salaamu ‘Alaykum to those present).”<sup>[7]</sup>

The Prophet said that one should mention the Name of Allah when entering the home and when beginning to eat, and that the devil upon hearing this says: “There is neither shelter for us here tonight nor food.”

5. Invocation for entering the toilet

“Bismillaahi Allaahumma innee a’oothu bika minal-khubthi wal khabaa-ith”

“I begin with the Name of Allah. O Allah, I seek protection in You from the male and female unclean spirits.”<sup>[8]</sup>

6. Invocation for protecting the house from the devil

Prophet Muhammad said: “Allah inscribed a book two thousand years before He created the heavens and the earth, from which the last two verses of Surah al-Baqarah were revealed. If they are recited, no Satan (devil) will come near the house for three nights.”<sup>[9]</sup> So try to recite these two verses once every three days.

7. Invocation for protection while staying at home or any place:

When at home or when you are resting or staying at any place, such as when camping or picnicking, you can recite:

“A’oodhu bikalimaatil-laah al-taammah min sharri ma khalaq”

“I seek refuge in the perfect words of Allah from the evil of that which He has created”

Prophet Muhammad said: “Whoever stops at a place and says: ‘A’oodhu bikalimaatil-laah...’, nothing will harm him until he moves on from that place.”<sup>[10]</sup>

In another narration, a man complained to the Prophet Muhammad that he was stung by a scorpion the night before. The Prophet replied that if he had recited this invocation, he would not have been stung. This invocation also protects a person from physical harm befalling him or her.

8. Invocation when feeling afraid

In general, if a person is afraid of something or feeling scared, then he/she can recite what was mentioned above in No. 1(a) to 1(d) and No 7.

Some people tend to attribute almost all problems and calamities on paranormal things such as witchcraft, demons etc. One should not become paranoid about it and look at things in a reasonable way. However if there is clear evidence or inclination towards the presence of supernatural things happening around, then one should surely take a serious note of it and protect oneself with the prescribed prayers.
